

CM-Path Biobanking Workshop – Do We Really Need Another Biobank?

 Tuesday 14th May 2019

 Seminar Suite, The Francis Crick Institute, 1 Midland Road, London, NW1 1AT

10.30 Arrival and registration
11.00	Welcome and Introduction	Prof. Andy Hall
Session 1: Review of Current UK Biobanks
Session Chair: Gareth Thomas
11.10	Why are Biobanks important? - Stakeholder considerations	Ms. Deborah Binner
11.30	Review of current UK Biobanking landscape	Prof. Andy Hall
11.50	What do funders expect from a biobank?	Dr. Zoe Davison
12.10	The challenges of accessing samples for research	TBC
12.30	How to use your pathology archive for research and the benefits?	Prof. Gareth Thomas
12.50	Panel Discussion
13.00 Lunch
Session 2: So, you do want to open a new biobank – what do you need to do?
Session Chair: Valerie Speirs
14.00	What do regulators expect and ask of biobanks?	TBC
14.20	Regulatory and ethical considerations when setting up a biobank	Dr. Claire Lewis
14.40	How to make your biobank attractive to researchers	Dr. Alex Bonner
15.00	Case Study: Using the BCN biobank for a research project	Dr. Will Brackenbury
15.20	Panel Discussion
15.30 Coffee
Session 3: So, you do want to open a new biobank – what do you need to do? Continued
Session Chair: Andy Hall
16.00	Sample quality considerations for biobanking	Prof. Valerie Speirs
16.20	Sustainability considerations for successful biobanking	Ms. Jane Rogan
16.40	Why are biobanks important to Medicine Development	Dr. James Peach & Ms. Helen Hind
17.00	Summary and Close	Prof. Andy Hall & Dr. Ian Lewis

With support from: